The Center for Judaic and Middle Eastern Studies at UConn, Stamford, now celebrating its twenty-second year, is a learning and study resource, offering credit courses within the academic curriculum in the Humanities as well as non-credit outreach programs for the community at large in all areas of Judaic culture, literature, and history, from antiquity to modern times.

The Center has been recognized for its innovative programs in the areas of traditional academic education and particularly outreach projects. Since its inception, the Center has enjoyed broad community support and has been financially supported by individual community members, foundations, corporate gifts, and matching grants.

The Center is a recipient agency of the United Jewish Federation of Greater Stamford, New Canaan and Darien, and is also supported by the UJF of Westport/Weston/Wilton/Norwalk.
