The Center for Judaic & Middle Eastern Studies at UConn, Stamford, now celebrating its twenty-third year, is a learning and study resource, offering credit courses within the academic curriculum in the Humanities and non-credit outreach programs for the community at large in all areas of Judaic culture, literature, and history, from antiquity to modern times, as well as in interfaith studies.

The Center has been recognized for its innovative programs and activities in the areas of traditional academic education and particularly outreach projects. Since its inception, the Center has enjoyed broad community support and has been financially supported by individual community members, foundations, corporate gifts, and matching grants. The Center is a recipient agency of the United Jewish Federation of Greater Stamford, New Canaan and Darien.
