For information on our courses and the Certificate Program, please call the Center for Judaic & Middle Eastern Studies at 251-9525 / 8435.

The Center for Judaic & Middle Eastern Studies at UConn, Stamford, offers credit courses within the academic curriculum in the Humanities as well as non-credit outreach programs for the community at large in all areas of Judaic culture, literature, and history, from antiquity to modern times, Israel, and Middle Eastern literature and politics, as well as in interfaith studies.

Now celebrating its twenty-fourth year, the Center has created a learning community around itself which gathers for intellectual pursuits and discussions of scholarly and contemporary issues. Its outreach programs are attended by diverse religious and ethnic groups from the local communities.

The Center has been recognized for its innovative programs in the areas of traditional academic education and particularly outreach projects. Since its inception, the Center has enjoyed broad community recognition and has financially been supported by individuals, foundations, corporate gifts, and matching grants.

The Center is a recipient agency of the United Jewish Federation of Greater Stamford, New Canaan and Darien.
